Directions (51 - 65) : Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it. Certain words/phrases have been printed in bold to help you locate them while answering some of the question.

Organic farming is either really expensive or really cheap, depending on where you live and whether or not you are certified. Not only are the "natural" pesticides and fertilizers increasingly marketed by agribusiness as costly as or costlier than their chemical counterparts, but proving you are an organic farmer requires certification, which is time-consuming and expensive. In the USA, converting to organic agriculture is a huge undertaking for commercial farmers who have relied on chemical fertilizers and pesticides for many decades, but in India, the conversion is no less arduous and far more ironic.

India's farmers are still mostly practising organic methods, passed down for millennia. Organic fertilizer and natural pest control are the only tools available to most of these farmers, who have always lacked the financial resources to explore chemical solutions. But these farmers, whose produce is as organic as they come, cannot afford to pay the fees required to gain official certification.

As the international community adopts standards for organic agriculture, the challenges faced by farmers in the USA versus farmers in India in order to adapt are very different indeed. The danger is that the well-intentioned global move towards organic standards will make small organic farmers in countries like India, who have never done anything but organic farming, no longer able to sell their crops.

In response to the $25 billion global market for organic foods, the Indian Central Government set up a National Institute of Organic Farming in October 2003. The purpose of this institute is to formulate rules, regulations and certification of organic farm products in conformity with international standards. The institute has its offices across the country and has appointed certifying agencies for organic farm products for the domestic market. The certifying agencies are accountable for confirming that any product sold with the new "India Organic" logo is in accordance with in ternational criteria, and launch major awareness and marketing campaigns, in India and abroad.

Organic farming has been identified as a major thrust area of the 10th plan of the central government, one billion rupees have been allocated to the aforementioned National Institute of Organic Farming alone for the 10th five-year plan. Despite this most of India's organic farms are not officially considered organic. Most of India's farms are "organic by default." The irony and difficulty of the new governmental push for organic agriculture is that 65% of the country's cropped area is "organic by default," according to a study. By this somewhat degrading term they mean that small farmers, located mostly in the Eastern and North-Eastern regions of the country, have no choice except to farm without chemical fertilizers or pesticides Though this is true in many cases, it is also true that a significant number of them have chosen to farm organically, as their forefathers have done for thousands of years. Many have seen for themselves the effects of chemical farming — soil erosion and loss of soil nutrients, loss of nutrition in food, and human diseases resulting from the chemicals that inevitably seep into the water table, all the reasons for the urgent demand for organic foods and farming.

India currently has only 1,426 certified organic farms. This statistical discrepancy reveals that the weak link in the organic/economic chain is certification. Under current government policy, it takes four years for a farm to be certified as organic. The cost of preparing the report is a flat fee of Rs. 5,000 and the certificate itself costs another Rs. 5,000. While these costs are bearable for the new industrial organic greenhouses, they are equal to or more than an entire year's income for the average small farmer. If the costs of travel and inspection are included.

In the United States an organic farm plan or organic handling plan must be submitted to a USDA accredited private or state certification program. The plan must explain all current growing and handling methods, and any materials that will be used – in the present, and any future plans must be included as well. Records for the last five years must be presented. Land must be chemical-free for three years prior to harvest, so a conventional farmer cannot receive the organic label for the transitional years. This will generally mean a decrease in income – crops may be less plentiful than with conventional fertilizers and pesticides, and yet the higher price for organic products won't yet be possible. Many farmers cannot afford the transition, even if they want to.

One solution to the small farmer's dilemma of how to both certify and survive is that of community certification. In community certification, communities, on a non-profit basis, take charge of the certification process themselves. They evaluate the farmer's commitment to the stewardship of the soil, and examine from many angles whether the food is being grown in an environmentally sensitive way or not, rather than technical standards. While community certification may be a viable solution on the local level. It is our opinion that, in the global marketplace, less than exact technical standards will never be enough for today's consumer - and, in today's largely poisoned environment, it shouldn't be, either. Furthermore, much "soft" guidelines can easily backfire on the farmers themselves, as a system not based on facts must be by definition subject to local politics, bribery, favouritism, etc.

India must find a way to keep the strict international organic standards intact if it wants to compete in the international market for organic foods- but is there a way to do it without leaving small farmers out in the cold ? One obvious solution is for the government to subsidize these certification fees enough to make it a viable option for ordinary farmers, not just for neo-organic factory farms and greenhouses. Banks also could provide a more level playing field for small farmers. Currently, almost bank loans are for pure crop farmers. While many of these big-business farmers use harmful chemicals and processes, small farmers fertilizing their soil with recycled organic wastes are usually ineligible for insurance, much less state subsidies.

51. What role does the National Institute of Organic Farming have to play in the organic farming area?

(1) To set standards for the import of material required for organic farming within India

(2) To ensure that Indian farm products conform to the international standard for organic foods.

(3) To suggest methods to farmers for producing the best organic products.

(4) To import the best organic foods from international countries and harvest them in India

(5) To set up agencies internationally for the marketing of Indian organic produce

52. Which of the following is possibly the most appropriate title for the passage ?

(1) Agribusiness in India

(2) Organic Farming in India – An Irony

(3) Inorganic Farming - A Health Hazard

(4) Small and Marginal Farmers

(5) Organic Farming in India and the US

53. Why, according to the author is the term "organic by default" degrading ?

(1) As Indian farmers are adopting incorrect methods of organic farming, thereby rendering the crop useless

(2) As the crop cultivated out of organic farming is rejected by most international agencies.

(3) As all the farmers in India do not have any access to chemical fertilizers and pesticides to carry out inorganic farming

(4) As the Government has issued a directive to farmers in India to carry out organic farming alone

(5) As it means that the farmers in India cannot afford to use anything but organic methods of farming

54. Which of the following are reasons for the increasing demand for organic foods and organic farming ?

(A) Consumption of inorganic food has given rise to human diseases

(B) Excessive use of pesticides has caused soil erosion

(C) There has been a loss in soil nutrient value of soil due to chemical farming

(2) Only [A] and (B)

(3) Only[C]

(4) Only (B) and (C)

(5) All (A). (B) and (C) are true

55. Why according to the author, will the idea of community certification not work ?

(1) As there may not be enough people in the community to work on a non-profit basis

(2) As the farmers' may not be forthcoming in providing information about their cultivation practices and thus lead to the failure of this system

(3) As the certification granted through this scheme will not be authentic at all

(4) As certification sought in this manner may give rise to vested interests and also not meet the stringent criteria laid down globally

(5) None of these

56. Which of the following is TRUE in the context of the passage ?

(A) The Indian Government is not in favour of acquiring certification to meet global standards

(B) The process of certification is quite time-consuming and expensive.

(C) The farmer does not earn much during the three-four years that it takes to get certification

(1) Only (A) and (C)

(2) Only (B)

(3) Only (B) and (C)

(4) Only (A) and (B)

(5) All (A), (B) and (C)

57. What according to the author, is a major problem with Organic Farming in India ?

(1) Despite their organic nature most farms in India are not perceived as organic because of mere paperwork

(2) The Government has not paid attention to organic farming in India thereby promoting inorganic farming to a great extent

(3) Only recycled organic waste is available to Indian farmers for the purpose of organic farming

(4) Indian farmers are accustomed to the usage of chemicals and their farms have now started losing their fertility

(5) Large number of farmers in India are averse to the idea of organic farming as it is not profitable

58. Which of the following, according to the author are factors that can help in acquiring organic farming certification in India ?

(A) Providing more bank loans to small farmers

(B) Reducing the quantum of loans being provided to pure crop farmers

(C) Lowering the cost of certification

(1) Only (A)

(2) Only (C)

(3) Only (A) and (C)

(4) Only (B) and (C)

(5) All (A), (B) and (C)

Directions (161 –165) : Study the following information carefully and answer the given questions.

In an international meet, representatives, A, B, C, D, E, F, G and H from eight different countries viz. Thailand, France, Holland, Austria, U.S., Spain, India and Germany (not necessarily in the same order) sit around a circular table facing the centre. A who represents Germany sits third to the left of E. The one who is from India sits to the immediate right of A. D who is from Holland sits second to the right of B. B is not an immediate neighbour of E. C who is from Spain sits exactly in the middle of people representing U.S. and India. G, the representative from France sits second to the left of H who is from Thailand.

161. How many people sit between A and representative from Austria when counted in clockwise direction?
(1) None   (2) One
(3) Two   (4) Three
(5) Four

162. Which of the following is TRUE regarding representative F?
(1) F is the representative of Austria
(2) F sits second to the left of the representative from Thailand.
(3) Representative from Germany is not an immediate neighbour of F.
(4) E sits third to the right of F.
(5) None is true

163. In which of the following pairs is the representative from the first country sitting to the immediate left of the representative from the second country?
(1) India - Thailand
(2) Austria - U.S.
(3) Thailand - Holland
(4) Spain - Germany
(5) U.S. - Spain

164. What is the position of B with respect to the position of representative from the U.S. ?
(1) Third to the left
(2) Fourth to the right
(3) Fourth to the left
(4) Second to the right
(5) Second to the left

165. Which of the following pairs represents the immediate neighbours of the representative from Holland?
(1) CG   (2) BE
(3) AH   (4) HB
(5) GE

166. The representative of which of the following countries is seated second to the left of Indian representative?
(1) Thailand   (2) U.S.
(3) France   (4) Spain
(5) None of these

167. The representative of which of the following countries sits exactly in the middle of the representatives from Thailand and France?
(1) Holland   (2) Austria
(3) Germany   (4) U.S.

Direction (168 – 170) : Read the following information/statement carefully and answer the questions.

168. Which of the following expressions will be true if the given expression 'K ≥ G > H ≤ F' is definitely true?
(1) F ≥ K   (2) H < K
(3) F < G   (4) K ≥ H
(5) None of these

169. In which of the following expressions will the expression 'A < D' be definitely true?
(1) A ≥ B = C < D
(2) A > B = C ≥ D
(3) A < B = C ≤ D
(4) A > B < C ≤ D
(5) None of these

170. In which of the following expressions does the expression 'M > R' does not hold true?
(1) M = P > Q > R
(2) M > P ≥ Q = R
(3) R = P < Q < M
(4) R < Q ≤ P = M
(5) M = P ≥ Q = R

Directions (171 –175) : In each of the questions below are given three statements followed by two conclusions numbered I and II. You have to take the three given statements to be true even if they seem to be at variance from commonly known facts and then decide which of the given conclusions logically follows from the given statements disregarding commonly known facts.

Give answer (1) if only conclusion I follows.

Give answer (2) if only conclusion II follows.

Give answer (3) if either conclusion I or conclusion II follows.

Give answer (4) if neither conclusion I nor conclusion II follows.

Give answer (5) if both conclusion I and conclusion II follow.

Some keys are locks.
Some locks are doors.
All doors are windows.

Conclusions :

I. Some keys are doors.

II. Some windows are locks.

174. Statements :

All islands are countries.
All continents are islands.
All planets are countries.

Conclusions :

I. Some continents are not countries.

II. No planet is a continent.

175. Statements :

All buses are scooters.
No scooter is a train.
Some trains are jeeps.

Conclusions :

I. No bus is a train.

II Some jeeps are scooters.

Directions (176 - 180) : In each question below a statement is given followed by two courses of action numbered I and II. A course of action is a practicable and feasible step or administrative decision to be taken for follow-up, improvement, or further action in regard to the problem, policy etc. On the basis of the information given in the statement, you have to assume everything in the statement to be true, and decide which of the suggested courses of action logically follow(s) for pursuing.

Give answer (1) if only I follows.
Give answer (2) if only II follows.
Give answer (3) if either I or II follows.
Give answer (4) if neither I nor II follows
Give answer (5) if both I and II follow.

176. Statement : According to latest statistics, number of rhinos killed by tigers was much more than the number of rhinos killed by poachers in a wildlife sanctuary.

Courses of action :

Directions (186-188) : Below in each question are given two statements (A) and (B). These statements may be either independent causes or may be effects of independent causes or a common cause. One of these statements may be the effect of the other statement. Read both the statements and decide which of the following answer choice correctly depicts the relationship between these two statements.

Mark answer (1) if statement (A) is the cause and statement (B) is its effect.

Mark answer (2) if statement (B) is the cause and statement (A) is its effect.

Mark answer (3) if both the statements (A) and (B) are independent causes

Mark answer (4) if both the statements (A) and (B) are effects of independent causes.

Mark answer (5) if both the statements (A) and (B) are effects of some common cause.

Directions (189-190) : Study the following information carefully and answer the given questions.

A word and number arrangement machine when given an input line of words and numbers, rearranges them following a particular rule in each step. The following is an illustration of input and rearrangement.

Input	Spark 82 27 Uva 46 Beat Omni 73
Step I	73 Spark 82 27 Uva 46 Beat Omni
Step II	73 27 Spark 82 Uva 46 Beat Omni
Step III	73 27 82 Spark Uva 46 Beat Omni
Step IV	73 27 82 46 Spark Uva Beat Omni
Step V	73 27 82 46 Omni Spark Uva Beat
Step VI	73 27 82 46 Omni Uva Spark Beat
Step VII:	73 27 82 46 Omni Uva Beat Spark

Step VII is the last step of the arrangement.

As per the rules followed in the above steps, find out in each of the following questions the appropriate step for the given input.

189. Input : Oat 19 Eat 83 66 Cat 54 Fur

How many steps will be required to complete the rearrangement ?

(1) Three (2) Four

(3) Five (4) Six

(5) None of these

190. Input : Boat 34 Ink 21 42 Wind Air 75

Which of the following will be step VII of the above Input ?

(1) 75 21 42 Boat 34 Ink Wind Air

(2) 75 21 42 Boat 34 Ink Wind

(3) 75 42 34 21 Air. Boat Ink Wind

(4) There will be no such step as it gets arranged before step VII

(5) None of these
